33. Vice Mayor Biederman, District 5

Back to Work

Vice Mayor Biederman stated it is nice to get back to work with having the City Commission and various other meetings.

COVID-19

Vice Mayor Biederman thanked the Mayor and City staff for all their hard work during the COVID-19 pandemic.

34. Commissioner Sherwood, District 6

COVID-19

Commissioner Sherwood thanked City staff for all their hard work during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Census

Commissioner Sherwood reminded residents they need to respond by submitting their information for the Census.

Unemployment Compensation

Commissioner Sherwood stated the State unemployment compensation has been slow and the State needs to do something about it.

ILA Funds

Commissioner Sherwood suggested using the Beach ILA funds to help local business City wide.

Restaurants Take Out

Commissioner Sherwood reminded residents to order takeout food which helps support local restaurants.

Political Phone Calls

Commissioner Sherwood stated there are political phone calls which are blaming either the Republican or the Democrat Party, on various issues. This has nothing do the with COVID-19 pandemic.

35. Commissioner Shuham, District 1

COVID-19

Commissioner Shuham wished the best to all residents who have family members stricken with COVID-19 that they recover or condolences to those who have not. She thanked Mayor Levy for all his hard work during the COVID-19 pandemic.

5G Workshop

Commissioner Shuham stated she is looking forward to the 5G cellular communications towers workshop.

Vote By Mail Ballot

Commissioner Shuham encouraged residents to vote at home by casting their vote using the "Vote By Mail" ballot process in the upcoming elections.

Vacation / Short Term Rentals

Commissioner Shuham stated short term rentals were banned during COVID-19 by Governor Ron DeSantis, but it has been a struggle to enforce the Executive Order. There are reports daily of violations of the order. Code Enforcement should be demanding long term leases, and if not provided they are in violation of the Executive Order and staff needs to enforce this.
