24. Vice Mayor Shuham, District 1

Leadership Hollywood

Vice Mayor Shuham congratulated Leadership Hollywood Class of 45 for their leadership projects: Spark, Natural Planting at the Chamber and All In Day at the Beach.

Becker Family

Vice Mayor Shuham congratulated the Becker Family in receiving their historical plaque for their house on Tyler Street.

Fred Lippman Multipurpose Center

Vice Mayor Shuham announced this Thursday, from 3:00 PM to 5:00 PM, there will be a Metropolitan Planning Organization (MPO) opportunity with the State to do a walk through audit at the Fred Lippman Multipurpose Center to consider the site for Broward Light Rail. Vice Mayor Shuham stated she will be out of town but hopes to hear great things from the event when she returns.

Condo Safety

Vice Mayor Shuham thanked Alison Saffold, Civic Affairs Administrator, for the Tuesday Night Report. Vice Mayor Shuham requested that the City look at our ordinances for condo safety since the State took no action on it. She does not want to wait for other agencies and to have staff work on a plan to improve what the County is currently doing.

Inspection Requirement

Vice Mayor Shuham requested Commission support for staff to come back with a pre sale inspection requirement for every house sold in the City. This will help the City with respect to unpermitted improvements and the influx of illegal vacation rentals.

Mayor Levy stated he has concerns on liability issues and the hardships on innocent homeowners, as well as the City employees who would have to research all the permits on a house and the workload. Mayor Levy stated upon his own research, he found there were about 3,600 transactions in the City, with about 17 certifications a day.

Dr. Wazir Ishmael, City Manager, stated some of the reasons that the Mayor listed are issues as to why this type of research has not been done before. He also warned that in older communities like the City, you will find lots of unpermitted work done over the years.

Commissioner Callari stated she has concerns with this item based on proposed hardships to the homeowner, when they are trying to sell.

Vice Mayor Shuham and Commissioner Biederman both agreed that having a program of this nature can absolutely stifle investors from making unpermitted work.

Vice Mayor Shuham, Commissioner Biederman and Commissioner Anderson supported a discussion on the issue.

25. Commissioner Anderson, District 2

Firefighter Orientation

Commissioner Anderson thanked everyone involved in the firefighters orientation held last night, another orientation will be held in the near future.

26. Commissioner Callari, District 3

Barry Faske

Commissioner Callari thanked Mayor Levy and staff for their sympathy on the recent passing of Barry Faske, it is a huge loss for the City, and she requested that everyone keep his family in their prayers.

Human Life

Commissioner Callari spoke about current events and the lack of respect for human life, with regards to the mass shootings that have recently occurred. Commissioner Callari encouraged everyone to be kind and respectful to one another.

Broward League of Cities

Commissioner Callari thanked the Broward League of Cities for their gala held at Margaritaville Hotel and Resort. Over 410 participants came to our great City and congratulations to Adam Reichbach, Assistant City Manager for Finance and Administration, on receiving his award for the Cares Act funding.

1818 Velm The Old Great Southern Building Tour

Commissioner Callari stated today she toured 1818 Velm, the old Great Southern building, and it was beautiful.

Positivity In Life

Commissioner Callari stated everyone needs to find the positivity in life, when she was driving around to address complaints she received she watched two people pickup up trash with a claw picker and garbage can on Taft Street. When she spoke with them, they stated it was their daily exercise and how they take care of their community. Everyone needs to focus on the good.

27. Commissioner Gruber, District 4Broward League of Cities

Commissioner Gruber congratulated Adam Reichbach, Assistant City Manager for Finance and Administration, on receiving his award for the Cares Act funding from the Broward League of Cities.

1818 Velm The Old Great Southern Building Tour

Commissioner Gruber stated he also toured 1818 Velm, the old Great Southern building, and it was impressive.

Stirling Road Landscaping

Commissioner Gruber requested staff to get back to him on the Stirling Road landscaping status, on what is coming and when, so that he can let the residents know.

46th Avenue Wall

Commissioner Gruber thanked staff for getting back to him quickly and he understands the 46th Avenue wall project was delayed about six months. Commissioner Gruber stated he just wants to have an idea on some interim solutions.

28. Commissioner Biederman, District 5

70th Avenue and 70th Terrace Clean Up

Commissioner Biederman thanked the Boy Scout Troop 118, Driftwood Civic Association and Arthur Codrington, Youth Ambassador, for helping to clean up 70th Avenue and 70th Terrace.

All In Beach Day

Commissioner Biederman stated the All In Beach Day was an amazing event with over 35 physically challenged participants that were able to get into the ocean.

Memorial Day Celebration

Commissioner Biederman announced the Memorial Day celebration on Sunday, May 29th from 6:00 PM to 8:30 PM at Boulevard Heights Community Center. Commissioner Biederman invited everyone to come help support the Silver Wings Band and memorialize the Fallen Soldiers and First Responders.

29. Commissioner Sherwood, District 6

Block 40

Commissioner Sherwood thanked the Department of Information Technology for making arrangements for her and Commissioner Anderson to provide a virtual view of Block 40. She believes Joseph Young would be proud of this building.

Tuesday Night Report

Commissioner Sherwood thanked Alison Saffold, Civic Affairs Administrator, for starting up the Tuesday Night Report at their request. She stated she finally received an answer to her request of the old Bank of America building, which will be redeveloped to an Auto Zone.

Condos Inspection

Commissioner Sherwood stated the Condo's are having problems with the 40 and 50 year condo inspections which are used to help keep buildings safe. However, this is stressing the smaller condos, where the residents live on a fixed income. Commissioner Sherwood stated she would like staff to come up with ideas on grants that can be received.

Happy Memorial Day

Commissioner Sherwood wished everyone a Happy Memorial Day.

30. Mayor Levy

Leadership Hollywood

Mayor Levy congratulated Leadership Hollywood for the All In Beach Day event. Unfortunately, he was not able to attend, however he viewed the photos and saw the Leadership Hollywood group was super enthusiastic and determined to make this an annual event.

Chamber Planning Event

Mayor Levy stated he attended the Chamber Planning event and it was very nice.

Rotary Club Auction

Housing Affordability Summit

Mayor Levy stated he attended the Housing Affordability Summit, along with Raelin Storey, Director of Communications, Marketing & Economic Development. Hollywood is doing a lot with regards to affordable housing, and the County is talking about dedicating a lot more dollars to this initiative.

Fallen Officers Memorial Service

Mayor Levy stated the Hollywood Police Department Fallen Officers Memorial was very honorable for those that we lost.

Masonic Lodge

Mayor Levy thanked Ray Faulkerson for the food drive that took place at the Masonic Lodge.

Grape Stars Memorial

Mayor Levy thanked the Counsel General of Canada, Susan Harper, for attending the Grape Stars memorial at the bandshell to honor Canadian driver Gilles Villeneuve. The event was very nice, and shared across media in Canada about Hollywood joining the Canadian community in honoring his memory.

Israeli Independence Day

Mayor Levy thanked the organizers for the Israeli Independence Day Celebration at ArtsPark on Mother's Day.

School Visitation

Mayor Levy stated he visited a religious school in North Miami, and tomorrow he will speak at Career Day at Orangebrook Elementary School, and he is looking forward to this as these are fun events for an elected official.

Traffic Calming Initiatives

Mayor Levy requested that Jose Cortes, Director of Design and Construction Management, include in the Tuesday report, an update on the traffic calming initiatives as part of the General Obligation Bond (GOB).

31. City AttorneyExecutive Session

Douglas Gonzales, City Attorney, announced pursuant to Florida Statutes 286.011(8)(a), an executive session would be held on Wednesday, June 8, 2022 at 2:30 PM in the West Construction v.
