DEVELOPMENT ACTIVITY REPORT

Mr. Leeds provided an update regarding the following:

- Brio
- Whole Foods/Crown Liquor/Lucky's Market
- World of Beer
- Amli Corporation/(Crossroads)residential units north of Peters Road behind Publix and LA Fitness
- LA Fitness
- Tesla marketing program providing electricity stations for cars at The Fountains
- Midtown Phase II/Camden Project
- Requests for more information regarding apartments and the Sears parcel
- Westside Medical Building
- 321 North.
- A preliminary plan for fast food for the vacant land next to Broward County Governmental Center.
- A preliminary plan for apartments in the Lakeside Office building complex was briefly discussed.
- American Express parcel
- Motorola
- Royal Palm was sold
- Fresh Market/BP/Bank
- School Board property for sale

There was a brief discussion regarding Plantation General Hospital moving to Nova Southeastern University in Davie. It was noted the City has hired experts to guide the City's case. This will result in challenges to the State Road 7 corridor including transportation issues. It was suggested that the City should consider developing a marketing plan for the State Road 7 corridor including review of the development regulations.

FINANCIAL REPORT ENDING OCTOBER 2014

Mr. Leeds provided an overview of the fiscal year-end report that was provided as part of the backup material.

Mr. Lethbridge requested a balance sheet for the District and questioned whether the District will be able to sunset the millage increase for the District.

Mr. Leeds will request the new Financial Services Director to discuss the budget at the March 11, 2015 meeting.

NEW BUSINESS

Mr. Lethbridge commented the website for Plantation Midtown appears to be outdated. After discussion it was suggested the District consider hiring someone to maintain and update the website.

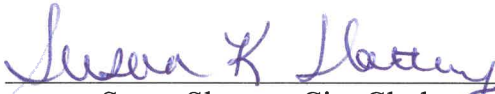

Discussion ensued with regard to the Midtown District partnering with organizations for events throughout the District. Mr. Leeds noted the City is in the process of changing the Special Events process that would increase the number of special events for a particular business. Food Truck regulations are being reviewed.

Motion by Mr. Kamelhair, seconded by Ms. Byer, for the Board to investigate retaining a Special Events coordinator for the Midtown areas to act as a consultant to develop a marketing plan for special events in the Midtown District including food, music and art festivals/events. Motion carried by voice vote.
